RE: Response to Order Dated 4.27.20
14-CR-773

Dear District Court Ronnie Abrams:

I am detained by the immigration authorities at Clinton County Correctional Facility. We do not have access to email. I asked my immigration attorney Paul Grotas to read me the Court's Order and to help me with this request for counsel, which I have asked him to submit to the Court on my behalf.

I do not know whether I should pursue this claim for permission to file a late notice of appeal, as a claim for habeas corpus relief, as I do not understand the implications of that for my current immigration matter. I feel that I cannot make this important and significant decision without advice from an experienced federal criminal appellate attorney. My immigration attorney cannot advise me on these issues and unfortunately I cannot afford to retain appellate counsel. I respectfully request that the Court please appoint counsel to consult with me on the issue posed by the Court and to respond to the Court's inquiry. I very much appreciate the Court's analysis and helpful guidance and would like to respond in a manner that makes most sense, given my situation.

Thank you very much,

/s Giorgi Buleishvili
